

BOO RADLEY

acoustic music duo

Boo Radley's original music highlights the songwriting skills and true passions of the acoustic duo, comprised of Michael Shawn Turner and Patricia Matson-Turner. Sophisticated harmonies and intricate guitar work define their unique sound. Their songs speak to modern-day issues and resonate with audiences young and old. Ranging from soft ballads to more hard-driving acoustic songs, their music has proven to thrive through Boo's live performances.

This acoustic duo came to life in April of 2014, though both members have decades of songwriting and stage experience between them. Their heavy-metal and rock backgrounds lend interesting color to the acoustic songs they are writing and performing, which have of late taken on a more folk-rock/country-music feel. Boo Radley has a newly-released commercial EP, 'More than Meets the Eye,' which is being well received by music fans and industry experts alike!
